Support Campaign '09: We need your help!

Happy 2009! We are beginning the new year with lots of excitement and plans. Unfortunately, as we prepare for 2009 we realize that we only have a little less than 60% of the money pledged that we need to continue our work here.

We need your help! Since we are in Guatemala and our ministries do not leave us time right now to travel home, we need you to spread the word. Please talk to your churches, your friends, Sunday school classes, anyone who would be interested in hearing about our ministry and helping us out with a monthly gift. Please also pray for us! We serve a faithful God and He will provide for our need.

We need around $500 more of monthly donations just to meet our budget. If you are not already supporting us please consider helping with a monthly contribution. Donating is easy, just go to <http://tinyurl.com/cojonsupport> or search for us under missionaries on the CTEN website (www.cten.org). You can also mail a gift to the "support address" listed on the back of this newsletter. All gifts are tax-deductible. Finally, if you would be interested in mission opportunities in Guatemala, either short term or long term please contact us!

Great is Thy faithfulness! Great is Thy faithfulness!
Morning by morning new mercies I see. All I have needed Thy hand hath provided;
Great is Thy faithfulness, Lord, unto me!

Guatemalan Christmas!

My family: nephew -Jeremiah, Me, Edgar, mother-in-law Loyda, Brother and sister-in-law Paco, Jenni, and father-in-law Emmanuel Yay for fireworks!

I spent Christmas with my Guatemalan family this year. At the stroke of midnight on December 24th fireworks begin to explode all over the city and the Christmas celebration begins. The celebration carries on into the early hours of the morning with tamales, songs and gifts.

Big pot of Tamales

On Christmas afternoon, we celebrated an American tradition and went door to door delivering Christmas cookies

Ministry Update:

I hope this newsletter finds you all well! We are very excited about the plans that we have for this coming year. I, Laura, will continue working at the Christian Academy of Guatemala teaching high school math and science, coaching basketball, advising the sophomore class and anything else they would have me do. I love working as missionary teacher and the great opportunity I have to affect the lives of these children and youth for Christ. Edgar will be a full time student at seminary as well as taking a few university classes this spring. He will also continue directing the worship team at the Iglesia Biblica. He is working on his song writing and recording. Together we will be helping to organize and facilitate short term mission groups who come to Guatemala. This year we also hope to begin working with a few new ministries including a children's home called Love the Child. (lovethechild.org) This is a home for children who have mild to severe disabilities. Stay tuned for more pictures and updates!

We love you all and God Bless!
Laura & Edgar
