

Guate Update

From the Cojons

December 2009

Prayer Requests:

- For more monthly financial support so that we can meet our budget
- For safety for us and for our community
- For my health and the health of our baby

Answered Prayers:

- Edgar's parents will get to come to the US to celebrate Christmas with us
- For the many, many blessings that God has given us this year

*It's the month before Christmas and all through the casa
Not a creature was stirring, well maybe a cucharacha*

*The stalkings were hung on the wall with care
But wait a minute, what do I see there?*

I see three, where there used to be two Looks like there is somebody new

*This Christmas we're proud to announce
That our family is growing, ounce by ounce*

*You see come round July smiling parents we'll be
There will be a new baby for all to see!*

We hope you all have a very blessed Christmas
from the Cojons!!

“For unto us a child is born, to us a son is given, and the government will be on his shoulders. And He will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of His government and peace there will be no end.”
...And He shall reign forever ...”
Isaiah 9:6 & 7

November happenings—Sharefest

Painting the benches in the park

Painting at the school in Salud Publica

The Sharefest event at our church in November was a wonderful outreach event. Edgar's park project started off well until hurricane Ida moved through and left us with 3 days of rain which made outdoor painting all but impossible.

Thankfully though, we found other places to work, helping out another project by painting a school.

Edgar has been given many opportunities to teach in the last few months. In addition to preaching at church and teaching Sunday school, he also spent a weekend on a youth retreat as a counselor and speaker.

Laura has kept busy at school going on a retreat of her own with the high school students at CAG. It was a wonderful time of growth and fun. At the end of October, we also held our annual Harvest Fair where the high school and middle school create games and activities for the elementary.

We are now ready to head into final exam week and Christmas break!

Getting ready for the Sunday service
at Colegio Atlantida

Hi everyone,
We have had a busy but wonderful few months. I hope that this Christmas season finds you with lots of joy. We are definitely happy to have the blessing of having a new baby on the way. Please pray for us as we embark on this adventure of raising a family on the mission field.

We also have the blessing of spending Christmas with all of our family this year. On December 19th, Edgar and I, along with his parents, will be traveling to Pennsylvania to spend Christmas at my parent's home. From there we will then travel to Wisconsin to visit Edgar's brother, Paco, and his family who are living there. We will return to Guatemala on January 10th. We are praying for a white Christmas! It will be the first time Edgar's parents will see snow!
